OORKAAN

Oorkaan collaborates with leading musicians in giving staged concerts for young audiences. Its mission is to give as many big and small ears as possible the chance to discover the infinite world of music. Oorkaan focuses on classical music from past and present, and from all over the world.

Since its foundation in the Concertgebouw in 2001, Oorkaan has worked with renowned names like Cello Octet Amsterdam, NAKK and the Netherlands Chamber Orchestra, and musicians like Diamanda Dramm, Julian Schneemann, Mehmet Polat and Sinan Arat. It gives frequent performances in large and small venues in the Netherlands and abroad, including Podium Mozaïek, Concertgebouw Amsterdam, Elbphilharmonie Hamburg, Brooklyn Academy of Music New York, Art Space for Kids China, Philharmonie Luxembourg, Konzerthaus Wien and Salzburger Festspiele.

Oorkaan is a multiple prizewinner of the international YAMawards and receives long-term subsidy from the Performing Arts Fund NL and the Amsterdam Fund for the Arts.

OORKAAN ENSEMBLE

Now that Oorkaan celebrates its 20th anniversary, it seems like the perfect time to take the next step: founding our own Oorkaan Ensemble, which will become a permanent part of Oorkaan and its identity.

The composition of the Ensemble will be formed during the audition process. We are looking for instrumentalists who have an affinity with music traditions from around the world, such as Western European classical music, Gamelan, Turkish, Moroccan, Surinamese and Caribbean music, and jazz.

The Oorkaan Ensemble will perform staged concerts, in which music is the prime focus and all the performers are musicians. For this purpose, the musicians will receive regular basic physical performance training (acting training), and each performance will be created with a director, and no spoken language is used. The staged concerts are developed with and by the musicians themselves.

The average time investment for the position is 20hrs/week, though in practice this will amount to full-time work during the rehearsal weeks, which is compensated during other periods.

The first production to be created and performed by the Oorkaan Ensemble is WHOOOP\(S\)!

Rehearsal weeks: full-time: the weeks of 11 October, 18 October, 22 November, 29 November, 6 December, montage from 12 December to 15 December

Try-outs: 16 December '21 and 5 January '22, Podium Mozaiëk, Amsterdam.

Premiere: 9 January 2022, Muziekgebouw aan 't IJ, Amsterdam.

Provisional performance dates: 16, 23, 24, 31 January; 1-6, 9, 10, 26, 27 February; 3, 4, 5, 10 April and 1, 6, 7, 8 May 2022

Who are we looking for? Musicians who have:

- an affinity with a broad repertoire, from Gamelan to Turkish music, from Caribbean to Moroccan music, Western European classical music and a flirtation with jazz/improvisation;
- strong capacity (or potential) for theatrical performance;
- an affinity with the target group of young audiences;
- a completed conservatoire education, or similar standard through practical experience;
- the wish to form a distinctive, leading ensemble;
